hear your voice and God's voice, even as we hear the voice of the loons. We are looking forward to an outstanding week and we looking forward to YOU!

IMPORTANT: Remember to bring the things you need for the best possible week (see the full list further down). Remember to leave all your electronics at home and unplug from screens. Plug into camp!

MIDDLER MOMENTS

COURAGE IN COMMUNITY!

COURAGE TO RELAX

Some of us wait all year to go to camp, and some of us have never tried such an adventure before, but together, all of us will have a COURAGEOUS SUMMER! From shaving cream wiffle ball, to contemplative walks in the labyrinth MIDDLER MOMENTS is just for you! From swimming, boating and splashing in the beautiful lake to singing in the chapel, our counselors are excited to have you walk on the boardwalk, walk with God and walk with new friends. We will have the most amazing week as we experience the warmth of the campfire, the games in the field, star gazing at night and the option for a morning run, swim or yoga session.

COURAGE TO TRY

BE COURAGEOUS IN MISSION

What began as a chance meeting of three children who lost their mother Daisy, to malnutrition has grown to become a source of nutritional food, potable water, education, and medical intervention for 100 children in Concepcion del Norte, Honduras.

This mission provides many vital services to the children and families of Honduras. Because of the food, water, shelter, regular meals, and other necessities Daisy's Children provides, many of these children are alive today. Bring a thoughtful monetary donation please!

Change the world with your courage!

The week we have planned for you will include, a daily ice cream option, special adventures with your SPIRIT groups, and FAMILY groups exciting interest groups every afternoon. This could be anything from flag football, kickball, jelly jar fishing, painting and sculpting to photography lessons, friendship bracelet making, or volleyball. There will be lots of time for socializing, reflecting, playing, singing, swimming, resting, swinging and lots of chances to be COMMUNITY!

IMPORTANT PARENT DETAIL

We will be looking for you to arrive at camp between 2-4 PM on Sunday.

Our end of camp and pick up time is on Saturday at 9:30AM

Please remember that late arrivals and early pick-ups are not supportive of the camp experience and strongly discouraged. Parents, please call the camp office if there are questions.

Camp is a holy place to make meaning and memories! A moment to be in the middle of community! It is also the chance to experience new things like the amazing Quitobaquito Dining Hall! Awesome!

bhoffman@metrocast.net will put you in touch with Dean Beth anytime you have questions, concerns or ideas!
